Mexico Trip

As I reflect on my recent trip to Mexico I can confidently say it was a breath of fresh air. This week was full of God showing up and touching His people. Through a Sunday morning service to simply meeting people and loving on them, it was a week to remember. This week was a reminder of the goodness of God, but it was also a reminder that if 2 or 3 are gathered, He's right there with us.

It was a blessing to be with my mom on this trip along with some old church leaders, teenagers, and friends. To see God move through them mightily was amazing. Also, as a current missionary with Fire International it was a special time connecting with 7 missionaries in Mexico! I believe this week imparted a new kind of FIRE that I can share.

Street Ministry in Guadalajara

Being this wasn't my first time in Mexico I was very familiar with street ministry. It's always a time of stretching and seeing what God will do. I wasn't afraid this time as I usually am, it was more of an expectancy of who's life I was going to be able to pour into. It's a boldness I know God gives me.

Our team was able to pray with many people and one member of our team, Melinda led someone to Christ! Isn't God so good to us?!

With the man pictured to the left was a divine appointment. He had a smurf tattooed on his upper leg and I knew that God had given him joy. Joy to encourage and uplift others for the Kingdom. He had a special joy that encouraged me to share that with others.

We all are called to exalt God and lift up others. Our lives are supposed to be salt and light of the earth and people should be able to see Jesus inside of us. I wanted to end this with a question of, "Can people see Jesus inside of you?"

Mexico Missionaries

I was able to meet with and video 7 missionaries in Mexico and help share their story. Over the next few weeks, I'll be sharing those on social media but here's a little bio about them and what they currently do. I can't get over saying it's amazing to see what God is doing around the Nations, and I'm absolutely blessed to be able to record these stories. From the bottom of my heart, thank you for your support!

Andy & Karyn Pricer

Missionaries since 1999

I've been blessed to spend time with the Pricers on multiple occasions. They truly are God's hands and feet. They love equipping people and letting them be stretched to do ministry.

They currently help out in many different areas of Mexico. For 14 years they've been running ESFM (Escuela Sobrenatural Fuego Mexico), street ministry, worship nights and so much more. I highly encourage you to check them out.

AW & Kathy Jones

Missionaries since 2002

AW & Kathy are amazing people. Their hearts showcase the love of God. I always have more joy after I spend time with them. Their hearts are pure.

AW helps teach at the school along with rehab ministry and preaching in churches. Kathy has a giving heart and she helps with feeding children, outreaches, and spending time with others.

Karen David

Missionary since 1999

Karen's ministry has a soft spot in my heart. Karen operates the Treasure House. It's a home for sexually abused girls. Karen gives them a home, yes, but so much more.

She gives them love like they've never gotten before. Knowing many of the girls that are there and have been for years shows that they know how good they have it at the Treasure House and it's always amazing every time I go.

Melqui & Fatima Gutierrez

I met this family on one of my first trips to Mexico. It's amazing to see them long for people to be encountered by God. Melqui currently comes alongside pastors in the area and equips and encourages them.

This week he shared with me that he recently started discipling this newer couple in Christ and how it's been so encouraging to see people fall in love with Christ. They're hungry for more of God and he was so thankful to be a small part of their lives and share his story with them.

I met Sherika in Bible school when she was a missionary to the Philippines. I didn't know much about her but it always amazed me to see a single woman living for Christ and living overseas as a missionary.

This week I got to spend time with her and listen to her story. Her and Bogart (her pup of multiple years) recently moved to Mexico as missionaries and she is anointed in worship. She can also explain the Bible in a way that makes it so easy to understand and comprehend.

Sherika Lockhart

Missionary since 2010

Temo & Sarah Anzaldo

Missionaries since 2025

Temo and Sarah are amazing people. They are love and light in simple words. They would give you the shirt off of their back and then pray for you to receive joy and fire. Spending time with them is always a delight..

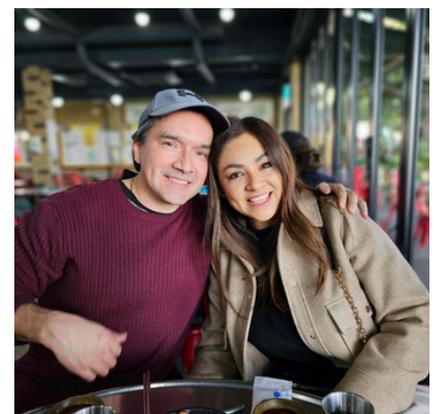

They've been a part of Fuego Mexico for several years. but they feel God leading them to be a part of Texas to build a church for Latino people. I know that they will be a HUGE blessing anywhere they go.

Ruben & Consuelo

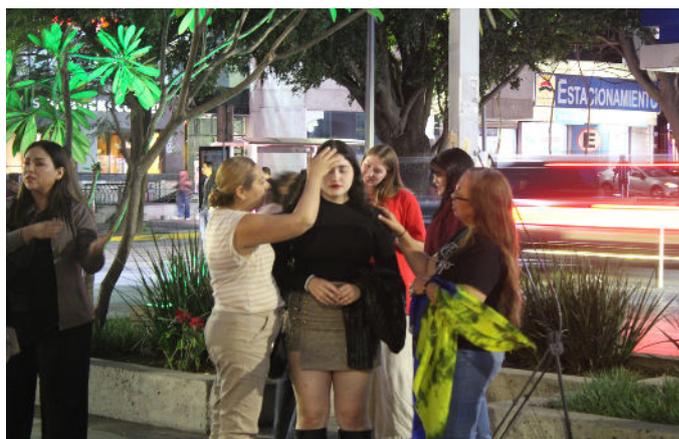

Missionaries since 2025

Recently I've got to meet these two and their hearts are pure. They do nothing light hearted and when they are a part of something it's full force. Watching Ruben evangelize during the street ministry was awesome. You could feel the heart of God speaking through him even when I didn't understand the language (Spanish).

They're stepping out in faith as well this year and looking for God to move in Japan. They're going for a few weeks to see what God wants from them. I'm excited to see where He leads.

Here's just a few photos from my trip, as always follow along on social media @FireStarterMedia and @RobertAultman for more.

Sharing Our Ministry

We'd love to share this vision that we have with you. Whether that's with your church, your organization, or your business. It's something we're deeply passionate about, and we believe it has the potential to inspire, encourage, and bring real value to your community.

All we ask is that our travel expenses be covered. We're flexible, easy to work with, and would be honored to connect with your group in whatever setting works best.
